The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 26. to Saturday August 30. 1712.

Windsor, August 24.

THE following Addreſs from the whole Body of Tinners of the County of Cornwall, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Lanſdowne, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, attended by Henry Vincent, John Manley, Henry Vincent, Jun. and John Elford, Eſqs; Members of Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Landlords, Bounders, Adventurers, and whole Body of Tinners, of Your ever Loyal County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us with all Humility to approach Your Sacred Perſon, and as becomes Your moſt grateful Subjects, to thank Your Majeſty for Condeſcending to communicate to Your Parliament the Terms of Peace.

Whilſt we are acknowledging ſo great an Inſtance of Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, we cannot enough admire the Effects of Your Wiſdom, after ſuch Attempts from at Home and Abroad to fruſtrate all Your Endeavours.

'Twas that Wiſdom directed Your Majeſty in Your Choice of ſuch able and faithful Miniſters, as were only capable to ſurmount all the Difficulties their Predeceſſors had involved Your Kingdoms in, who ſure will be remembred ſo long as we or our Poſterity feel the Weight of their heavy Burthens.

We cannot forget how our Taxes ſtill encreaſed with our Victories, when our Deſires were greater than our Hopes of ever ſeeing ſo happy a Concluſion to the War, which muſt render Your Majeſty's Name even yet more Glorious than all the moſt glorious Triumphs of Your Reign.

May Your Majeſty ſoon have the Satisfaction of giving that Bleſſing to Europe.

May Your Majeſty's Dominions long enjoy all the Advantages of ſo univerſal a Commerce; and to crown all Your Happineſs upon Earth,

May Your Majeſty behold Your own Religion more flouriſhing and more extenſive, than was ever known under any of Your Royal Progenitors.

To which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to make this moſt Gracious Anſwer,

I Take this Addreſs from the Body of Tinners very kindly. I can never doubt the Loyalty of the County of Cornwall, that has always been ſo Eminent for it.

The following Addreſs from the County of Dorſet, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Benjamin Gifford, Eſq; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Dorſet, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Dorcheſter the 7th Day of Auguſt, 1712.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Inclination Your Majeſty ſhews to redreſs the Grievances of Your People, by diſcountenancing thoſe who in this long and expenſive War, have conſulted their private Intereſt in oppoſition to the publick Good; and who now perverſly obſtruct Your juſt Endeavours of reſtoring Peace to Your Kingdoms, demands the hearty Thanks of all thoſe who wiſh well to Your Sacred Perſon and Government; their former Proceedings make us the leſs ſurprized, when we obſerve them preferring the Intereſt of our Allies to that of their Native Country, and upon every Occaſion inſinuating their Diſtruſt of Your good Intentions towards the Houſe of Hanover.

Your Majeſty (we beg leave to believe) cannot but be ſenſible with what Chearfulneſs we have maintained a very burthenſome and diſproportioned War. We rejoice to think it now draws towards a Concluſion, and that notwithſtanding the ungrateful Conduct of Your Allies, and the unexampled Diſobedience of Your Mercenaries, the Credit and Commerce of the Nation will be encreaſed, and Poſterity in ſome meaſure recompenced for the heavy Loads that have been laid upon them.

We cannot ſufficiently admire the noble Reſolution with which Your Majeſty ſtruggles with the many and great Difficulties You meet with in the purſuance of ſo good a Deſign, in which we humbly beg You to perſiſt, as being the only means to ſecure You from Sedition and Faction at Home, to make You truly great and formidable Abroad, and to render You (if poſſible) ſtill more beloved and admired, by a happy, flouriſhing, and a grateful People.

The following Addreſs from the County of Nottingham, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Levinz, Eſq; one of the Knights of the Shire, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy, met at the Aſſizes held for the County of Nottingham, on the 7th Day of Auguſt, 1712.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS we attribute our Succeſſes in War (next under Providence) to Your Majeſty's auſpicious Influence, ſo we cannot but admire the prudent Meaſures, ſo ſteadily purſu'd by Your wiſe, indefatigable Miniſtry, which have given us ſo near a Proſpect of a happy Peace; where the Difficulties were naturally ſo great, and yet thoſe artfully encreaſed by Self-intereſted and ambitious Perſons, whoſe private Advantage was term'd the publick Good; and whoſe Delight was was in War, becauſe their Impunity and their Gain depended on it.

With the humbleſt Gratitude we thank and confide in Your Majeſty, for our Security in the Proteſtant Succeſſion. And after ſo many Inſtances of a tender Affection ſhewn to Your People, cannot, without the higheſt Injuſtice, imagine (whenever it muſt be our great Unhappineſs to be deprived of Your Majeſty) but as wiſe a Proviſion will be made for our Safety, as humane Affairs can admit of, without that dangerous Project of calling in a Foreign Power to ſupport it.

After ſo great a Condeſcenſion in acquainting Your Parliament with the Terms of Peace, we cannot but wonder that any one, who calls himſelf an Engliſhman, can envy Your Majeſty the aſſuming that glorious Character of being the Balance and Arbitrator of the Intereſts of Europe: Eſpecially when we conſider the advantageous Conditions, by a diffuſive Trade obtain'd for Your own Kingdoms; the juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction procured to ſome, and the ſecure Barrier, with the acceſſion of an enlarg'd Territory, allow'd to others.

May the ſame watchful Providence, which has hitherto given ſo viſible a Succeſs to all Your Undertakings, ſtill attend Your Councels, to the compleating ſo great, ſo good a Work, for which this Age ſhall pay You its juſt Tribute, of Duty and Acknowledgment; and ſucceeding ones ſpeak to Your immortal Glory. And we moſt humbly aſſure Your Majeſty of our utmoſt Endeavours, to ſupport and defend You againſt all the Inſults of Foreign Power, and all unnatural Oppoſition at Home.

The following Addreſs from the County of Leiceſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Tho. Cave, Eſq, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leiceſter, at the General Quarter Seſſions held for the ſaid County at the Caſtle of Leiceſter, the 15th of July, 1712.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

SInce the making Peace and War is Your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative, Your moſt gracious Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your People the Progreſs you had made towards reſtoring the Tranquility of Europe, and the affectionate Concern You had ſhewn to make them ſome amends, who had born an unequal Burthen during the Couſe of this War, calls for our grateful Acknowledgments, and Your ſteady Endeavours to procure for Your Allies juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction, and for Your own People ſuch honourable and advantageous Terms of Peace, as will eſtabliſh the Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and extend the Britiſh Commerce beyond what our Anceſtors enjoyed, or we our ſelves could hope for; muſt fill the Hearts of all Your faithful Subjects with a grateful Senſe of Your tender Care for the true Intereſt of Your Kingdoms. And we beg leave to declare our Abhorrence of thoſe factious and artful Meaſures that are made uſe of by deſigning Men, who envy Your Majeſty one of the moſt ſhining Glories of Your Reign, to hinder the Completion of theſe Glorious Purpoſes, ſo happily carried on by your great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, and the Uprightneſs and Integrity of Your Counſels; the happy Effects of which we already feel, and will, we doubt not, be extended to Inteſt Poſterity. And we beg leave farther to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we will chearfully Sacrifice all that is Dear to us in Defence of Your Royal Perſon and Goverment, againſt all Your Enemies abroad, and the Ungrateful and Factious at Home: And that You may long live and govern a thankful and obedient People, and reap the Fruits of all Your Cares in a laſting Peace, is the conſtant Prayers of, &c.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Fortroſe, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Colonel Alexander Mackenzie, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Exeellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailiffs, Town-Council, Gentlemen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fortroſe in the County of Roſs, North-Britain.

THE Power of making Peace and War being Your Sacred Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative; Your great Condeſcenſion in laying the honourable Terms of Peace, forced from France by Your Wiſdom and Victorious Arms, before Your great Council the Parliament, is ſuch a ſingular Inſtance of Your Royal Affection for Your Subjects, as ſhould equally fill their Hearts with Joy and Gratitude.

Purſue, moſt Serene Sovereign, the Meaſures ſo auſpiciouſly begun, towards obtaining the happy End of a bloody and expenſive War, in ſpite of the Inſolence of unſatiable Oppoſers Abroad, and more dangerous Boſom-Enemies at Home, that would obſtruct Your Chriſtian Deſigns for the good of Europe in general, and the Proſperity of Your own Realms in particular.

May Your Majeſty live long to enjoy the Fruits of Your Labours, in all the Bleſſings of an uninterrupted Peace; that under Your Government the Church and Monarchy may be ſo firmly Eſtabliſh'd, that the one may be proof againſt the Devil of Rebellion, as the other is by promiſe againſt the Gates of Hell. Then ſhall Britain flouriſh in Unanimity as well as Power, and be able to give Laws to enormous Potentates, to Your Majeſty's immortal Glory.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Forfar, was tranſmitted by George Teaman, Eſq; Member of Parliament for the ſaid Borough, and preſented to Her Majeſty by George Lockhart, Eſq; one of the Commiſſioners of the Publick Accompts, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Your Antient and ever Loyal Burgh of Forfar, head Burgh or Shire Town to the County of that Name.

Moſt gracious Sovereign!

WE Your moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects preſume in all Humility to approach Your Sacred Majeſty, with our ſincere and hearty Thanks, for all the great and valuable Bleſſings, which we have enjoyed under Your Majeſty's moſt happy and ſtill auſpicious Reign.

And particularly, from the deepeſt Reſentments of loyal and thankful Hearts, we do acknowledge Your Majeſty's tender Care of the good of Your Subjects; together with Your moſt wiſe and ſurprizing Conduct in Your Royal Endeavours to put an end unto this long, bloody, and expenſive War, and to procure a moſt honourable and advantageous Peace.

And, as we relie moſt entirely upon Your Majeſty's Wiſdom for the perfecting of ſo good and glorious a Work, ſo we pray earneſtly that God Almighty may be pleaſed to Crown Your Royal and Chriſtian Endeavours with a deſirable Succeſs, and defeat all the Deſigns and Counſels of thoſe who ſhall oppoſe what ſo much tends to Your Majeſty's Glory and Honour, and the laſting Comfort of all Your good and loyal Subjects.

We do alſo beg leave to offer our hearty Thanks unto Your Majeſty, for the Favours which You have been pleaſed to ſhew to thoſe of the Epiſcopal Perſwaſion and Communion of the Church of England here in Scotland.

And ſince we have always been Faithful unto the Church, as wall as unto the Monarchy (whoſe real Intereſts cannot be ſeparated) and have, by the Bleſſing of God, under the Protection of Your Majeſty's Government, ſtill enjoyed the comfortable and peaceable Participation of the Ordinances of Chriſt, diſpenſed unto us by our old Epiſcopal Miniſter (who is ſtill living in the Poſſeſſion of our Church) without any Schiſm, or ever having ſo much as one Diſſenter in our Congregation. We do with all Humility and Thankfulneſs acknowledge, that under the Providence of God we owe ſo great a Bleſſing to the benign Influences of Your Majeſty's Government.

And that God may be graciouſly pleaſed ſtill to preſerve and bleſs Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſhall ever be the hearty Prayer of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects, and moſt humble and devoted Servants.

To the QUEEN's moſt Exeellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Steward, Mayor, Under-Steward, Bridge Maſters, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, and other chief Inhabitants of the Town of Maydenhead, in the County of Berks.

TO permit this mean, but Loyal Corporation, to caſt themſelves at Your Royal Feet, with moſt grateful Hearts to acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Care and Concern for Your Subjects Welfare, manifeſtly ſhewed in the Steps You have been pleaſed to take (and communicate to Your Parliament) towards a general Peace.

The Security of our Religion, Liberty, and Trade, being of the greateſt Moment, it is with unſpeakable Satisfaction we hear Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs, has inclined You to take into Your Princely Conſideration theſe unvaluable Bleſſings, in the preſent Negotiations of Peace, by aſſuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; by eſtabliſhing a beneficial Trade, and procuring a juſt Satisfaction to all Your Allies. All which we eſteem the effect of Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, and the Ability and Integrity of Your preſent Miniſtry.

May Your Majeſty go on to finiſh what is ſo happily begun, maugre all the artful Contrivances of the Factious at Home, and the envious Abroad, that the great Glory Your Majeſty's Reign has been bleſſed with in War, may terminate in a no leſs glorious Peace. And that Your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of the one, as a juſt Reward for the great Fatigues of the other.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtable, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Steyning, in the County of Suſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

THE Condeſcenſion Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhew, in communicating to Your People the Terms on which a general Peace may be had, calls for our moſt grateful Acknowledgments, and encourages us to Congratulate the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Negotiation, which neither Malice nor Faction, nor the ſpecious Pretences of thoſe who envy Your Majeſty this great Glory, have been able to prevent.

Your Majeſty's repeated Aſſurances that nothing can move you from ſteadily purſuing in the firſt Place the true Intereſt of Your own Kingdoms, fully perſwuade us, that no Care will be wanting to bring this Peace to happy and ſpeedy Iſſue; and we ſhall with all Duty and Gratitude ſhew our chearful Concurrence with Your Majeſty for the promoting this great Bleſſing, with our ſincereſt Prayers, that the Glories and Felicities of Your Majeſty's Reign may exceed that of any Your Royal Predeceſſors.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Great Tarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Wodehouſe, Bart. one of the Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County, County, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl Poulett, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Your Majesty's Ancient Burgh of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE presume to lay our humble Acknowledgements at Your Royal Feet, by Your unparalleled Condescension, in communicating to Your People the Terms on which they may expect a just and honourable Peace; a Peace that will give undoubted Security to Your Allies, and solid Advantages to Your own Subjects; a Peace that will convey down Blessings to our remote Posterity, by the effectual Provision You have made to secure the Protestant Succession (as 'tis by Law Established) to those of Your own Blood, in the illustrious House of Hanover. Such a Peace as we cannot hope for, but from Your present inimitable Conduct, which outshines all the other Glories of Your Triumphant Reign.

We see already the Earnest of this great Blessing, in the Surrender of Dunkirk to Your Majesty; a Fortress whose Importance can never be so well estimated, as by the Consideration of that immense Treasure, of which the Enemy has from that Port only, despoil'd Your People; and in which the Trade of this Town, has had a very feeling Share.

May Your Majesty soon perfect that good Work, which the God of Peace has put into Your Hands; and (which must exceedingly increase the Satisfaction of Your great Mind) long very long, may Your Majesty live to see a grateful People, Blessing God and Your Majesty in the quiet Enjoyment of those Comforts, which Your indefatigable Watchfulness has procured for them.

The following Address from the Borough of Whitchurch, was presented to Her Majesty by Frederick Tilney and Thomas Vernon, Esqs; the Representatives for the said Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, Freeholders, and other the Inhabitants of Your Antient Borough of Whitchurch, in the County of Southampton.

AMong the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, we beg leave to approach Your Most Excellent Majesty at this juncture, to return our most humble Thanks for those glorious Terms of Peace, which You was pleased with great Condescension to Communicate to Your Parliament; highly Advantagious to Your own Subjects, and beneficial to Your Allies: And as a sure Pledge for the same, we do with joyful Hearts receive the good News of the Surrender of that important Fort of Dunkirk, after so Bloody and Expensive a War, of which, we who are employ'd in the Woollen Manufacture, have to our great Grief felt the ill Effects; so we now hope, on the prospect of an approaching Peace, to recover our Trade, and employ our Poor.

So Honourable a Peace as Your Majesty demands, none can object to, but those few who delight in War, and find their own Accounts therein.

We implore the Almighty to bless Your tender Care of us, that in the conclusion of so great a Work, we may have Plenty added to the Security of the Protestant Succession. And that Your Majesty may live many Years to reap the Fruits of Your own Labour, and may at last ascend to Your Heavenly Crown, and do assure Your Majesty that we are, and always shall be, Your most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of East-Retford, was presented to Her Majesty by Bryan Cook, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgesses of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough and Corporation of East-Retford, in the County of Nottingham.

Most Gratious Sovereign!

IN equal Duty and Gratitude, with the best and most Loyal of Your Subjects, we do sincerely and heartily acknowledge Your Majesty's great and singular Condescension in communicating to Your People, by their Representatives, the Progress already made towards a happy Peace.

It must be allowed by all Your Allies, that as Your Majesty has been the Principal in maintaining and carrying on this long and expensive War, so, undoubtedly, You ought to be in conducting the Treaty for putting an end to it; that the Welfare of Your own Kingdoms, and the securing of the Protestant Succession to them, as by Law established in the House of Hanover, is your first Consideration and reasonable Satisfaction for Your Allies, Your next Care and invincible Proofs to all the World of Your Majesty's great Goodness, Prudence, and Justice.

May the Almighty, who has so signally blessed Your Majesty's Arms with Successes, by his Providence continue to protect Your sacred Person, and enable You to remove all Obstructions whatsoever that would prevent or delay the Compleating this great and glorious Work; to which, when finished, we can need no other Blessing to be added, but Length of happy Days to Your Majesty, that you may see the Effects of Your pious Care in the most flourishing Condition of Your most obliged and most Thankful People.

That God would thus requite the best of Queens, for the most valuable Benefits, quite through Her Auspicious Reign, conferred upon us and very likely to descend upon our late Posterity, is the constant and most earnest Prayer of Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Town and County of Poole, was presented to Her Majesty by William Lewen, Esq; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of Your Town and County of Poole.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE most humbly beg Your Majesty to accept of our unfeigned Thanks for Your great Condescension in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms offer'd by the French for a General Peace, which are not only Glorious to Your Self, but Beneficial to Your Kingdoms, and safe for all Your Allies. And for Your great Care in preserving the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and of our Trade Abroad, and particularly for obtaining the whole Island of Newfoundland, on which the Trade of this Town chiefly depends.

May Heavens bless Your Endeavours with Success according to Your Desire, that we and all Your Subjects may enjoy the Fruits thereof, and Your Majesty have the Glory and Satisfaction of a long and happy Peace here, and be crowned hereafter with everlasting Peace, are the hearty Wishes of Your faithful Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Bishops-Castle, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Robert Raymond, Solicitor-General, and Richard Harnage, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Justices of Peace, Capital and other the Burgesses of the Borough of Bishops-Castle, in their Common-Hall assembled, the 2d Day of August, 1712.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOur Majesty's great Condescension in communicating to Your Parliament the advantageous Terms on which a Peace might be obtained for Your own Subjects, and the Proposals of France for satisfying Your Allies, justly claims a return of our most sincere and humble Thanks.

'Tis

'Tis eaſie to believe that any Nation which has long laboured under the Burthen of an expenſive and unequal War, would be pleaſed at the Proſpect of a ſpeedy Peace; but when we conſider that by finiſhing this glorious Undertaking, Your Majeſty will procure for your own Subjects Advantages, not only unexpected, but even unthought of at former Treaties, will ſecure the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover at Home, and ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt Abroad, will provide a juſt and reaſonable Satisfaction and Security to Your Allies, and will reeſtabliſh the Balance of Power in Europe, we cannot fully expreſs our Joy, nor ſufficiently admire the Wiſdom of Your Majeſty's Councels and Conduct.

Theſe are Deſigns truly worthy of Your Majeſty's Endeavours; theſe Deſigns, when accompliſh'd, will crown the Glories of Your Reign, and we doubt not but that that Providence, which has hitherto enabled Your Majeſty to ſurmount thoſe Difficulties which ſome for ill Purpoſes have raiſed and fomented at Home, and others for private Advantages have encreaſed Abroad, will ſtill aſſiſt Your Majeſty in the Proſecution of this good Work, and render all Attempts againſt it ineffectual and Vain.

'Twas therefore with the greateſt Satisfaction we receiv'd an account that Your Majeſty's Forces have taken Poſſeſſion of that Important Fortreſs of Dunkirk; by this Your Majeſty has gratified the Wiſhes of Your People, tho' beyond their Expectations; by this Your Majeſty has brought the pleaſing Proſpect of Peace to a nearer View, and has convinced every Body that will ſuffer himſelf to be convinced, that Your Majeſty has not only inſiſted upon, but has actually obtained a Security for the performance of what ſhall be agreed to be the Terms of Peace.

The laſt Tribute that we can offer Your Majeſty for theſe great things done for the good of Your Subjects, is an aſſurance of our inviolable Duty and Affection to Your Perſon, of our ſteady and unſhaken Loyalty to Your Government, and of our entire Confidence in Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Councels.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Miniſter, Chamberlain, Bailiffs, and Freemen, of your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Queenborough in the County of Kent.

Moſt Auguſt Princeſs!

WIth the profoundeſt Duty and Humility, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to offer (our greateſt but too mean Offering to ſuch a Sovereign) the juſt Tribute of our ſincereſt Gratitude for your Majeſty's obliging Goodneſs and gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating to your two Houſes of Parliament the ſeveral Terms and Propoſals on which, as on a laſting Baſis and Foundation, a wiſh'd-for Peace may be ſurely built and eſtabliſh'd.

The entire Confidence we have in Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Prudence, manifeſted in Your particular Care for the Welfare of Your Subjects, embolden us to beſeech Your Majeſty to proceed, and (notwithſtanding the artful Contrivances, and vile Practices of ſome deſigning Men, whoſe Malice, God be praiſed, is greater than their Power) to obtain ſuch a Peace as may tend to the Glory of Your Sacred Majeſty, the Honour of Your diſcreet Miniſtry, the Satisfaction and Happineſs of Your People and Allies.

That the ſole Power of Peace or War is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, we unanimouſly acknowledge, and at the ſame time moſt ſolemnly, and without the leaſt intermixture of occaſional Hypocriſie, aſſure Your Majeſty, let the Event of the preſent Treaties and Negotiations be what it will (we hope, and pray they will ſpeedily terminate in a glorious and honourable Peace;) that we in our ſeveral Stations, and to our utmoſt Abilities, will ſacrifice all that is dear and valuable to us in the Defence of a Perſon and Authority ſo ſacred, againſt the reſtleſs Attempts of turbulent and factious Spirits, who, like Porpoiſes, are deviliſhly pleaſed with Storms of their own fatal raiſing.

And we farther aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall always take care to chuſe (as we have already done) ſuch for our Repreſentatives, as are of a ſteady and unſhaken Loyalty to ſo good a Queen, true Sons of ſo pure a Church, and prepared at the Expence both of their Lives and Fortunes, to maintain the Crown and ſupport the Mitre.

Live then, moſt pious Princeſs, whoſe Delight and higheſt Ambition in this World, is to make and keep Your People happy; live and ſtill be Your great Self, great in Majeſty, greater for Piety, and greateſt in the Contempt of temporal Greatneſs. May the ſame ſweet Providence which hath led ſo noble a Merit to the Throne, long preſerve You in Your high Orb: Long may You Reign on the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and in the Hearts of Your People; and when our Sins ſhall envy us the Happineſs of Your longer Reſidence among us (a Judgment we even dread to think of) and cauſe You to reſign the Britiſh Diadem to the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, may You receive an immortal One from the great Rewarder as well as Ruler of Princes, which are the no leſs hearty than dutiful Prayers of us, &c.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Tenby, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Barlow, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament of the County of Pembroke, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord-Keeper.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's Antient Corporation of Tenby, in the County of Pembroke.

AFter a long and tedious War, carried on with a vaſt Profuſion of Chriſtian Blood and Treaſure, begun upon publick Views, but conducted to private Purpoſes, and ſiniſter Deſigns, to gratify the unſatiable Avarice of ſome of Your Majeſty's Allies, and boundleſs Ambition of others, to enrich Your Factious, and impoveriſh Your Faithful Subjects, how acceptable, how pleaſing, muſt the Dawnings be of an approaching Peace?

A Peace, which will (if poſſible) wipe away the Infamy and Reproach that has been brought upon this Nation, by the ignominious Treaty of Gertrudenburg.

A Peace, which juſtifies to the diſintereſted World, Your Majeſtys great Wiſdom in the choice of Your Councils, who are equally Ornaments and Supports to Your Majeſty's Throne, and zealous Aſſertors of the Honour and Intereſt of the Nation.

A Peace, which equally poizes the Power of Europe, and ſettles the Ballance of it, which amply provides for the juſt and reaſonable Demands of Your Allies, opens and diſcovers to Your Subjects, new and glorious Scenes of Wealth, great and ſurprizing Fonds of Trade, and gives them a Dominion over the Riches of the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies; which Conſideration alone, we believe makes the preſent Treaty ſo unacceptable to ſome of Your Majeſty's Allies, who have been always found Rivals, and invidious of Your Majeſty's Power, tho' at the ſame time they owe their very being to the Protection of it.

We cannot therefore but think it our Duty, among the reſt of Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, to make our moſt humble acknowledgment of Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs, not only for Your entring into this Treaty, but alſo for Your moſt gracious Condeſcenſion, in communicating the ſame to both Houſes of Parliament; and humbly beſeech Your Majeſty to proceed in finiſhing the Negotiation, by the ſame wiſe Steps, by which You have ſo happily begun it, without regard to the Uneaſineſs of Your Self intereſted Allies, who have in a moſt diſhonourable Manner, withdrawn from their Duty Your Mercenary, and endeavoured to inſult Your National Troops, to whoſe Courage alone (under God) they have been more than once indebted for their Preſervation.

And we humbly beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that as we have a very juſt Deteſtation and Abhor-

fence of a certain new Doctrine, which is so industriously Propagated, and endeavoured to be introduced among us, by Persons acting under the Influence of Foreign Pensions and Powers, who would persuade us (out of a pretended Zeal for the Succession) to be wanting in our Duty to the best of Sovereigns, and who would argue us into an Opinion, that the best way to be Patriots, is to be very mindful of the Interest of our Allies Abroad, and to be very forgetful of our own at Home; so will we use our utmost Endeavours, to make Your Majesty's Reign over us, as easy and glorious to Your Majesty, as Your Majesty hath made us happy under it.

The following Address from the Borough of Bridgenorth, was presented to Her Majesty by Whitmore Acton, one of their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Ministers, Aldermen, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's Loyal Borough and Corporation of Bridgenorth in the County of Salop.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects, being deeply sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy during your auspicious Reign, crave leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the near Prospect of the great Blessing of Peace so desirable in it self, and necessary to your People, who have long sustained the unequal Burthern of a bloody and expensive War.

And herein we cannot sufficiently admire your Majesty's Wisdom and Conduct, your steady Resolution and invincible Constancy in prosecuting so good and great a Work, notwithstanding the Discouragement that hath attended it at Home, and the artful Obstructions it hath met with Abroad.

The Terms on which a Peace may be made, and which your Majesty hath been graciously pleas'd to lay before your Parliament, we are perswaded to be so peculiarly advantageous to your own Kingdoms, so just and honourable to all your Allies, that none can envy your Majesty the glorious Right of your just Prerogative, and your People the advantage of so pious and good an Undertaking, but such only who delight in War, or being bribed by private Interest, or poisoned by factious Principles, endeavour to obstruct the Prosperity of these Nations to eclipse the Glory of your Reign, and to destroy the Liberties of Europe, and the Ballance of Power which your Majesty hath always been so careful to preserve.

But as your Majesty hath taken particular Care to secure the Protestant Succession, hath actually provided for the Safety of our home Trade, by the Recovery of Dunkirk, and guarded the Establish'd Church from the Encroachments of her Enemies; so we sincerely pray, that you speedily may finish this happy Negociation, and speak Peace to your People here, and have the Reward of the Peace-makers hereafter. That you may long live to be the sole Arbitrator of Europe, to govern a flourishing and obedient Nation, be always blessed with a Ministry equal in Sagacity and Fidelity to those who now attend your Council. And may you never want a Parliament whose Zeal, Loyalty and Power shall not make them both willing and able to assist your Majesty upon all Emergencies, and Support your Government against the Malice and Opposition of all your Enemies.

The following Address from the Borough of New-Castle under Lyne, was presented to Her Majesty by William Burslem, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament; Introduc'd by the Earl of Rochester.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's Loyal Bailiffs, Common-Council-Men, Gentry, Clergy, Majority of Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of New-Castle under Lyne, in the County of Stafford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects, the Honest and Loyal part of your ancient Corporation of New-Castle under Lyne, humbly beg leave to approach your Throne, with our most grateful Acknowledgments of that tender Care (which during your happy Reign) has been shewn to all your Subjects, not only in our Defence from the Common Enemy abroad, but also from the proud Insults of a domineering Faction at home.

You give us, Madam, daily Instances of your unwearied Endeavours to make us a happy People, your glorious Conquests terminate in the near Prospect of such a Peace, which must be of the greatest Advantage and Security to your Majesty's Dominions, and all your Allies, who shall have the Wisdom, as well as Gratitude, to concur with your Majesty in it.

In procuring such a Peace, you procure us the greatest Blessing your Majesty, as God's Vicegerent, can bestow upon a Nation that has too long born a very unequal share of the heavy Burthen of a bloody and expensive War.

But your Majesty will now sheath the devouring Sword, the Dove is returning with the Olive Branch: And thus thro' the painful Diligence of an able and faithful Ministry, your Transactions for Peace will render your Majesty as Glorious as your Successes in War; the Satisfaction of which we already feel from that important Fortress of Dunkirk, being deliver'd up to your Troops; Port Mahon ready to receive a British Governour, and the Commerce of Britain so surprizingly extended to Parts never before thought of.

We want Words to express the just Sense we have of this your Majesty's great Care and Goodness for us and our Posterity, by which you have undoubtedly secur'd our Religion in a Protestant Succession, establish'd the Ballance of Power, enlarg'd your Dominions, animated your Friends, suppressed your Enemies, lightened our Burthens, and fill'd us with a lasting Joy.

We think our selves not a little happy, that we of this Place (notwithstanding the utmost Efforts and Contrivances of a restless and factious Party) have been able to send such Representatives to Parliament, who have heartily concurr'd with the rest of your Loyal Commons, in justly asserting your Majesty's Honour and Prerogative, and faithfully regarding the Rights and Liberties of your Subjects.

Long, very long, may your Majesty live to be a nursing Mother to this Church and Nation, a check to Ambition, and a scourge to Faction. May Atheism and Profaneness, Schism and Sedition, be for ever banish'd from your Kingdoms, and Discontent and Malice hide their shameful Heads. Long may you be the Defender of our Laws and Liberties. May the Ballance of Europe be always held by such a British Monarch. And may your Successor be Heir to your virtuous and pious Principles, as well as to your Crown and Scepter.

The following Address from the Borough of Chepping-Wycombe was presented to Her Majesty by Charles Godfrey, Esq, one of their Representatives in Parliament, and the Mayor, Aldermen and Bailiffs of the said Borough: Being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Chepping-Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

May

May it please Your Majesty;

WE among the general Congratulations of your People, beg leave with the utmost Humility to offer up our Thanks also to your Majesty, who whilst you hold the Ballance, and determine the Affairs of Europe, can yet so graciously condescend to your Subjects as to make them acquainted with the Negociations of Peace, which we promise our selves now is not far off. When we see France, who is not very apt to part with any of her Acquisitions, put the most important Fortress of Dunkirk into your Majesty's Possession.

And with all Gratitude, we repeat our humble Acknowledgments for your Royal Assurances, that your Majesty will in your Treaties take Care to secure the Protestant Succession, and improve the Trade and Commerce of Great Britain; together with all just Regard for your Allies, which is all that your Subjects can wish for themselves and their Posterity.

We have nothing more but to pray to Heaven, that after so burthensome and bloody a War, your Majesty's long Life may secure the Blessings of Peace and Plenty to all your Dominions, and that your Majesty after all your Care, may enjoy an easy and long Reign over a loyal, obedient and united People.

All which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very Graciously.

Berlin, Aug. 27. N.S. The Elector of Hanover's Minister hath communicated to this Court the Measures his Electoral Highness hath taken to prevent the Plague from spreading into his Dominions, and hath also desir'd that the same Care may be taken on this side. Major Gen. Hakebora, who was sent with a Compliment to the Czar, returned hither last Night. He reports, that the Muscovite Army invested Stetin on the 25th, and that they were preparing to attack that Place with the utmost Vigour, the Danish Fleet having brought them a Train of Artillery consisting of Seventy five pieces of Canon and Forty Mortars, together with a sufficient quantity of Ammunition of all sorts. That this Siege might be carried on with the greater Diligence, King Augustus is come in Person to the Camp to animate the Army by his Presence.

Hambourg, Aug. 30. N. S. The Trenches before Staden were opened the 20th at Night, and the Batteries began to play on the 27th. The King of Prussia and the Duke of Wolfembuttle in quality of Directors of the Lower Saxony, had put a small Number of Troops into Staden in the Name of the Circle, of which it is a Member, in hopes the King of Denmark would not commit any Hostilities against a place where they had a Garrison, but the Danes shewing no regard to their Protection, and the Troops being too few to make any considerable Resistance, withdrew at the approach of the Army. They are since arrived in the Neighbourhood of this City, but are not permitted to come in till their Quarentine is performed. Lieut. Gen. Denitz has been sent by his Danish Majesty to the Cour of Hanover, to endeavour to persuade the Elector to quit the Posts of Ottersberg and Verden which they had possessed themselves of, in order to secure the Country from the Danger of the Contagion, but his Electoral Highness seems resolved not to part with them, since the Plague is already within three Mile of those places.

Brussels, Sept. 3. N.S. Since the Surrender of Fort Scarpe, the French Army have advanced their Approaches to the Town of Douay very far, and on the 30th they made themselves Masters of the Saliant Angles of the Covered Way, notwithstanding which we are assured by Letters of Yesterday, that the Place may hold out several Days longer. The same Advices add, that the Confederate Army remained in the Camp of Seclin, but they were preparing to march on the 5th into that of Foyenne near Tournay, by which Situation Pr. Eugene will be able to cover Mons in case Mareschal Villars should attempt any thing against that Town, when he has finished the Siege in which he is now engaged.

Dunkirk, Sept. 7. N. S. We have received Advice by our last Letters from the Confederate Army, that Douay continues to make a good Defence.
